A Note from the Artistic Director

Where has the year gone?

It seems like we were all just getting ready for our Winter Shows and here we are at production time... WOW!!! To say this year has been a busy one would be a massive understatement. We once again went to Disneyland with our Glee and Showchoir classes from both studios. Our students performed in California Adventure and participated in Soundtrack and Dance Workshops. Competition season is underway and we're all thrilled that show season is here. The teachers and students have all been working so hard on our spring productions and are thrilled to share them with everyone. Looking forward we have registration coming up in June, Summer Camp in July and a trip to New York for our senior students next year... it's a good thing we all love what we do! Thanks to all our students and their families for continuing to support both studios and to our teachers and staff for making this all possible. Enjoy the shows!
